Due Diligence

Bidders are urged to perform property research and due diligence prior to bid submittal. A bid is an irrevocable offer to purchase property and once made, is a binding contract. The Bidder is solely responsible to determine the extent, if any, to which the property they are bidding on will or may be subject to liens. Prospective bidders are urged to examine the title, location and desirability of the properties available to their own satisfaction prior to the sale. The County Treasurer makes no warranty, either expressed or implied, to the title, the usability, location, property lines or topography of the properties listed. Bidders are further advised that certain properties may be subject to easements or use restrictions. Recorded easements are not extinguished by a tax sale. The property address where listed is not from a verified source, but the Treasurer is required to use it. Therefore, the address may, or may not be correct.

Bidder's Prohibited

Washington State law prohibits county officers and employees from directly or indirectly purchasing property at this sale.

Competing Liens

These sales may be subject to special assessment liens of other taxing districts and federal liens not extinguished by this sale, whether known or unknown. Properties that have an IRS lien against them, where known, have been listed on-line. The IRS has the right to acquire the property within 120 days of this sale by reimbursing the purchaser.

County as Bidder

If no one bids the minimum bid amount on any property, at the close of the auction that property shall continue to be held in trust by Mason County.

Research and Inspect thoroughly before you bid

The County Treasurer makes no warranty, either expressed or implied, as to title, the usability, location, property lines or topography of the parcels listed. The County does not guarantee that all properties are buildable lots. All properties are offered for sale on a “where is” and “as is” basis without any representation or warranty, expressed or implied. It is the responsibility of the purchaser to do their own research as to the use of the properties for their intended purpose and to inspect the property personally to determine if it will be suitable for the purposes for which it is purchased. The Treasurer is not responsible for surveying, identifying or locating property boundaries for prospective buyers. The property address where listed is not from a verified source, but the Treasurer is required to use it. Therefore, the address may, or may not be correct.

Possession of Property

The successful bidder may take possession of the property after the payment has been received and the County Treasurer’s Deed has been recorded. The County Treasurer has forty-five (45) days from the end of the tax sale to record and mail the County Treasurer’s Deed to the successful bidder.

Balance of 2018 Property Taxes

Upon recording of the County Treasurer’s Deed, any taxes due for the remainder of 2018 are not known at this time and were not included in the minimum bid listed in the auction. Successful bidders will be mailed a 2018 property tax statement separately after the tax deed has been recorded.

ALL PROPERTIES ARE SOLD “AS IS” “WHERE IS”

The sale of these properties should not, in anyway, be equated to real estate sales by licensed sales people, brokers or realtors. The County Treasurer makes no guarantee, expressed or implied, relative to the title, location or condition of the properties for sale.

Mason County does not issue Tax Lien Certificates, as Washington State is not a Tax Lien State.
