COVID-19 KNOWN AS NOVEL CORONAVIRUS:

Mason County has twenty (20) confirmed cases of COVID-19 at the time of this release.

Positive cases are located throughout Mason County. Assume everyone, including yourself (with or without symptoms) could have COVID-19 and act accordingly.

RECOVERY:

As we look out into the coming months, we begin to make plans for summer, trips, BBQs and other family and recreational activities. Our Command Team is also looking out into the coming months. We want to ensure the reopening of businesses, restaurants, parks, trails, and other activities is successful. Together, we can help our County successfully move forward into the future while maintaining the health of our citizens and strengthening our economy.

BUSINESS/NON-PROFIT ASSISTANCE:

- Working Washington Small Business Emergency Grant application process is now closed.
- There will be two more upcoming grant opportunities available for small businesses and we will get that information out as soon as we receive the eligibility criteria and application.

AGENCIES:

Hospital and Medical Facilities:

- Mason Health also offers Drive Thru COVID-19 Testing. You must call the Respiratory Illness Triage Line at 360-427-3615 before coming to MGH for testing.
- For up-to-date medical service line updates, Hospital and clinic hours changes, visit Mason General's website at www.masongeneral.com or their social media platforms – Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and LinkedIn.
